

YOUTH EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PROGRAM (YEOP) LMID QUICK LINKS

1. What is Labor Market Information? – Information about the market -where labor skills are exchanged for wages. Information can be descriptive (qualitative) or statistical (quantitative). The key elements in the labor market are the workers (labor resources) and jobs (employment opportunities).
2. How to find a new Career – New to the job market? A step-by-step approach to determine your career interest and aptitude. Determine how much money you need to maintain your preferred lifestyle with California Career Zone. Learn about the best career for you based on your skills and interest using Self-Assessment for Career Exploration. Use Make Money Choices to create a budget with the lifestyle you want.
3. California Occupational Guides – Already have a job in mind to explore? Get a job description, job outlook, wages, qualification requirements including benefits, licensing, education, training, with links to possible employers, how to find a job, and related occupations.
4. California Internships – Find internship opportunities by department or agency. Simply click “Internship Opportunities” for details.
5. Federal Internships – Find federal internships by location, occupation, and how to prepare to be hired.
6. Apprenticeships – Identify apprenticeships by county and occupation.
7. Youth Topics – Select various youth topics such as Transition and Aging Out, Dating Violence Prevention, Children of Incarcerated Parents, Afterschool Programs, Substance Abuse Prevention, and employment.
8. CalJOBS – The State of California’s on-line job database which allows users to easily search for jobs, build resumes, and access career resources.
9. Government Jobs – Interested in civil service? Explore employment opportunities with the State of California and Federal Government.
10. Job Fairs and Workshops – Locate job fairs and workshops throughout California.
11. Office Locator – Looking for help on your job search? Find the nearest One-Stop Center now known as America’s Job Centers of California where you will have free access to computers, copy and fax machines, telephones, and individual services.

12. Wages & Employment by Occupation – Latest occupation wages by SOC Code. Find specific occupation or SOC Codes using occupational Codefinder.
13. Projections – Industry & Occupations – Click the Area Name to look up local projections by industry (NAICS) and occupation (SOC) including Occupations with Most Job Openings and Fastest Growing Occupation. Find specific occupation or SOC Codes using occupational Codefinder.
14. Skills Profiler – Find skills you have acquired through your job and other activities to help explore occupations that require your skillset.
15. Career Match – Identify careers with similar skills for a quicker career transition. Fosters transferable skills.
16. Training Providers – Data and links to Information for educators and training facility administrators to answer the question - what are the occupations and skills for which you should provide training.
17. HWOL \(Help Wanted Online Local Area Data\) - Compares the number of unemployed persons and the number of available job ads by county, see the cities with the most job ads, top 10 employers with most job ads, and top 10 occupations with most job ads.
18. Major Employers by Counties – Locate major employers. Information includes their address, phone, and Web site address, and industry description.
19. Monthly Labor Force & Unemployment Data – To access the most current labor force data, industry employment, and unemployment rate by county.
20. Standard Occupational Classification \(SOC\) – Find occupations in specific industries, the green economy, STEM discipline, and occupations with bright outlook.
21. North America Industry Classification System \(NAICS\) – Find industry classification of businesses with a drill down table.
22. LMI Consultants by County – Labor Market Consultants help workforce partners (such as Workforce Investment Act boards and staff, one-stop staff, educators, and those engaged in economic development) and employers find, access, and use labor market information and services.
23. Glossary of Terms - Common terms used in employment and labor market information..